

SQ3R

SQ3R: Reading strategy where students Survey, Question, Read, Recite, Review.

Use this sample SQ3R Reading Guide. Make sure you label each heading in your notebook for credit for them in the notebook check!

- Survey—Preview the title, pictures, graphs, or captions, then read the first and last paragraph of the section. Make a list of the main points or objectives you find.
- Question—Write 3 questions based on your survey of the text.
- Read—Read and answer the questions you wrote down as you read.
- Recite—Look over your questions and be able to recite the answers without looking them up.
- Review—Summarize what you wrote at least 3-5 sentences.
